

AJAY BAHL

Ajay Bahl is Co-Founder and Managing Partner of AZB & Partners. In addition to being a lawyer, he is a qualified Chartered Accountant. Ajay has over 35 years of experience and advises corporates, domestic and international, and their promoters in a wide area of advisory, transactional, litigation and compliance needs. This includes regulatory compliant and tax-efficient India entry and operating models and cross border investment, as the case may be. Ajay also advises companies, promoters, Boards, and audit firms on various aspects of corporate governance, regulatory compliance, group restructuring, investigations pertaining to corruption and bribery, accounting fraud, etc., competition & anti-trust, succession planning and a host of business aspects that require a compliant, practical and holistic legal analysis. He also mentors the extensive tax practice at AZB & Partners. He has served as an independent expert on behalf of the Government of India on matters of accounting and tax issues before the International Court of Justice at the Hague. Ajay has served and currently serves as an expert member on various committees constituted by the Government of India, Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), etc. Ajay is widely recognized as one of India's foremost corporate attorneys. He has been lauded by Chambers Asia-Pacific for his "sharp commercial mind and ability to lead from the front."