

Shri Chander Uday Singh
Senior Advocate

Chander Uday Singh is a Senior Advocate at the Supreme Court of India. In his illustrious career, he has appeared before the Supreme Court in the Navtej Singh Johar case, as well as the Krishna Kumar Singh case, that held the repeated promulgation of ordinances as unconstitutional. He is also the Counsel for organisations such as Lawyers Collective and Citizens of Justice and Peace (CJP). He was previously a member of the Bombay Bar Association and practised in the Bombay High Court for many years. Before turning to law, Mr. Singh was a journalist with the India Today Group.