

D.S. NARULA

“After being enrolled as an advocate in 1976, I started my practice in Delhi High Court. Good part of my training and experience was as a panel lawyer both for Delhi Administration and Municipal Corporation of Delhi. Later specialized in civil litigation (writ and original jurisdiction).

I was the first Asian to be elected as an executive member of the International Young Lawyer’s Association (AIJA) in 1984 and remained on the Board till 1997 and was then appointed as the Hon. Vice President of AIJA for life.

Post 1990-1991, with the coming in of foreign investments in India, I participated in a number of International Arbitrations as well as mergers and acquisitions and forming of joint ventures.

In 2011, I was designated as a Senior Counsel by the Delhi High Court.”
