

Prof. Dipak Bhattacharya and his long experience in law covers both domestic as well as international issues. He is a member of the Committee on Islamic Law and International Law, under the auspices of the International Law Association, London. He is also declared as “an eminent citizen” by the Government of India being the ear & the tongue in respect of Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Scheme, having served as the Vice-Chairman/Acting Chairman of West Bank Hospital (now known as Narayana Super Speciality Hospital), Kolkata. He is also an Expert volunteer/Evaluator, National Board of Accreditation and had been appointed an Advisor to the Hon’ble Minister of State for Railways, Govt. of India including teaching experience from being an ex-Member of the Governing Body of University of Engineering and Management, Kolkata/Jaipur, the ex-Director (Academic), IEM University, ex-Principal of School of Law, UEM & the (Ex) Professor of Law, Govt. Law College, University of Bombay.