

Hemant Singh is an IP litigator, founder and managing partner of IP law firm Inttl Advocare with offices in Delhi and Mumbai. He is also a registered patent agent. He was admitted to the Bar in 1984 and handled over 2,500 IP litigations in various courts around India, involving contentious and complex issues. His specialization includes trademarks, patents, designs, copyright, trade secrets, geographical indications, competition laws, IT laws, etc. With worldwide diverse clientele, he represents several Fortune 100 and 500 companies in the field of pharmaceuticals, foods and beverages, liquor, garments, cosmetics, FMCG, fashion accessories, computer software, telecommunications, media, electronics, automobiles, biotechnology etc.

He has been actively participating in the growth of valuable jurisprudence in the field of IP through various amicus briefs as well as through leadership of IP committees at international IP associations globally.

He is a president of the AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property) - India Group. He has served on the board of directors of INTA (International Trademark Association), also as the chair of INTA ACC South Asia Subcommittee and Co-Chair of INTA India Global Advisory Council. He continues to be a council member of the APAA (Asian Patent Attorneys Association) and a member of the enforcement committees of the AIPPI and INTA as well as a member of Marques.

Source: <https://law.asia/india/india-top-lawyers-2021/hemant-singh/>